

Agenda CAC22A

Ticket Information and News on COVID-19

Due to the regulatory Corona requirements and the associated uncertain planning situation, we have decided to hold the CAC in our well-proven hybrid format: So in short: All keynotes, presentations, and panel discussions will also be streamed to our Frankfurt School conference platform, which will be accessible by all participants with a valid ticket. Find the link to the online tickets here.

We planned on allowing 300 participants on-site at the Frankfurt School of Finance and Management on each of the 3 conference days. Please find all information regarding on-site tickets here:

<https://www.eventbrite.de/e/crypto-assets-conference-2022-cac22a-tickets-239053574677?aff=ebdssbdestsearch>

Included in the on-site tickets are networking opportunities on Monday and Tuesday evening sponsored by Coinbase, Fireblocks and Blockdaemon.

We very much look forward to your participation and another exciting conference. Thank you very much for your support!

To inform you at the conference about the last version of the agenda and about conference/local news, we have set up a Telegram group for all CAC22A participants. Click on the link below to join the Telegram group or simply take a photo of the following QR code!
